Commitment to Growth

Because of my desire for a positive weekend, I agree to submit myself joyfully to the following guidelines. I fully understand that the first violation of these will result in my immediate return home.

Students must dress appropriately and with Christian modesty in mind.

If it is necessary for you to leave camp, you must check with your trip leader AND have a Time Away card signed by a parent/guardian.

Everyone participates in all activities and should be on time.

Respect your leaders, staff, and group leaders. Treat others like you would like to be treated.

Any form of Public Display of Affection (PDA) is not allowed.

Respect the property of the facility, host homes, and respect others at all times. "If you break it, you will pay for it!" Do not take or borrow anything that does not belong to you.

CELL PHONES One of the primary purposes of The WKND is to get away from all distractions that keep us from hearing from the Lord. Due to the many issues that cell phones have caused in the past, we have a NO cell phone policy for our camp.

Students are to bring their paper Bibles, pens and something for notes.

All the above codes, rules and policies are in place and enforced in order for your child to have the best possible camp experience. Their safety and well-being is our number one priority. Any camper that does not abide may be sent home at your expense. Please help us make this the best week of their summer by supporting us and inform them of these things before they leave for camp.
